Dechert
LLP

The opening of Dechert's Chicago office in 2012 marked both the firm's expansion into the Midwest as well as a significant enhancement of our white collar and securities litigation capabilities.

Our Chicago team focuses on defending public companies, their directors and officers in securities class actions, Securities and Exchange Commission investigations, corporate governance and related disputes. We also handle commercial litigation matters, including product liability and class actions involving allegations of unfair consumer practices.

Prominent clients

- AbbVie
- Anavex Life Sciences
- Blackboard
