Dechert
LLP

Established in 2011, Dechert's Los Angeles office is known for delivering both high quality legal expertise and practical commercial judgment. Our lawyers are regularly involved in many of the firm's most complex commercial litigation matters, and typically conduct several jury trials each year in state and federal courts around the country. We also represent clients in a variety of appellate matters in state and federal courts nationwide, as well as in arbitrations domestically and abroad.

Our LA team advises numerous financial services firms, including asset managers and investment funds. We also handle the entire range of corporate and business law matters and conduct a vigorous renewable energy and project finance practice.
