LITIGATOR

OF THE YEAR

ANDREW LEVANDER Dechert

It's hard to find a thorny, high-profile case that Dechert chairman Andrew Levander isn't involved with. Levander led the work steering Takata through criminal and civil cases around the world over its faulty airbags. And while Barclays was charged in a criminal case stemming from the financial crisis, Levander's client, Barclays ex-CEO Robert Diamond, was spared. Levander handled multiple FCPA cases in the last two years and helped ex-New Jersey Gov. Jon Corzine resolve matters stemming from MF Global's bankruptcy. Client Park Lane Hotel's $1 billion joint venture was removed from the DOJ forfeiture action over embezzlement from a Malaysian sovereign fund. He's now defending Fox News in sexual harassment litigation.
