David De Pasquale advises on all aspects of corporate law and transactions, corporate finance, mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures and corporate governance. This includes representing asset managers, international private equity firms, and investment funds such as real estate funds and hedge funds.

Mr. De Pasquale focuses on matters relating to professionals of the financial sector as well as investment funds generally, and he also advises on the corporate and compliance aspects of creating and structuring regulated and unregulated investment vehicles.

Prior to joining Dechert, Mr. De Pasquale practiced at a Luxembourg based law firm where he focused on corporate law, private equity and alternative investment funds. After beginning his career at a New York firm, Mr. De Pasquale practiced with the Paris office of another international law firm where he advised clients on corporate and M&A matters.
