Ryan M. Moore is an associate in the firm's litigation group. Mr. Moore represents and advises corporate and individual clients in connection with contract, fiduciary duty, regulatory, and other complex commercial matters in state and federal court, with a focus on various Pennsylvania trial and appellate matters. Mr. Moore has also represented and advised clients in SEC investigations and financial audits by state regulatory agencies.

In his pro bono practice, Mr. Moore is a co-chair of Dechert's Asylum and Refugee Pro Bono Practice Group, which handles both affirmative asylum applications before USCIS and defensive asylum proceedings before immigration judges. Mr. Moore also successfully represented a non-citizen petitioner seeking to overturn his order of removal before the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, in a published decision that created a circuit split regarding the so-called "stop time" rule. Mr. Moore also represents plaintiffs in civil rights actions in federal court.

Prior to joining Dechert, Mr. Moore clerked for the Honorable Franklin S. Van Antwerpen on the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit.

Mr. Moore earned his JD summa cum laude from the Temple University Beasley School of Law in 2012, where he served as Editor-in-Chief of the Temple Law Review.
