Lindsay Trapp is a dual American and Irish qualified lawyer who joined Dechert in 2011 after four years with Irish Funds as Executive Officer of Legal and Technical.

Ms. Trapp's practice focuses on assisting U.S. and European clients in the structuring and establishment of private funds and SPVs including a focus on the structuring and formation of cross-border Irish and US structures as well as assisting with post-establishment compliance and distribution. Ms. Trapp specialises in structuring, setup and compliance of regulated and unregulated private funds, particularly direct lending, private equity, multi-credit and property funds. Ms. Trapp also works closely with Dechert's Finance and Real Estate Group in the formation of Irish domiciled securitisation and risk retention vehicles on a standalone basis and as part of fund structures.

Ms. Trapp is a Dechert internal expert in relation to Irish partnership structures.

In addition to advising US and European clients on the establishment of private funds, Ms. Trapp provides in time zone advice on AIFMD related issues for US clients and deal teams and provides European clients with assistance regarding the requirements for managing and marketing foreign funds into the United States.

Ms. Trapp is currently a member of the Irish Funds AIF Product and Innovation Working Group, the Investment Limited Partnership Legislative Working Group and is co-chair of that working group's Limited Partnerships Act 1907 sub-group.

Ms. Trapp is frequently quoted by industry press including Ignites Europe and Creditflux, where she was recently quoted about alternative fund structures including Irish Limited Partnerships.
