Stanley Tiu focuses his practice on investment funds. He advises fund managers on the authorisation and distribution of fund products in Asia, including on SFC authorisation requirements, regulatory compliance matters and the marketing of investment funds such as UCITS. Mr. Tiu also advises clients on the formation and distribution of private funds and hedge funds.

Prior to joining Dechert, Mr. Tiu was an in-house legal counsel of a global asset manager.

EXPERIENCE

- A UK investment adviser on the set up of a global long/short equity strategy and commodity index tracking strategy under a UCITS umbrella.
- A Swiss sovereign investment fund on the negotiation of side letter terms in an ESG private equity fund.
- A private equity firm on a US$200 million secondary transaction, including the clearance of conflicts of interest.

- A UK investment manager on the merger of five hedge funds with US$700 million assets under management.
- Advised on the set-up of a multinational asset management firm-backed UK robo-adviser.
- An asset manager on implementing a data privacy regime for all representative offices across Asia Pacific.
